

The 2nd Annual Rex Stout Banquet

Friday ■ October 15, 2010 ■ 7 p.m.

Painting by Kevin Gordon

We eat. We drink. We sing. We toast.
We have fun! We're the Wolfe Pack!
All Are Welcome!

www.nerowolfe.org

The Menu

Consomme

Quenelles Bonne Femme

Sauteed Brook Trout with a brown butter caper sauce

Confit of leg and thigh of Liberty Duck on a bed of braised apples, onions, and cabbage, with herb roasted fingerling potatoes and a fresh cherry sauce

Rossi Salad

Chocolate Tartuffe with fresh raspberry sauce

French Roast coffee and herbal & black tea

Wine Included ■ Cash Bar

The Keynote

Keynote Speaker, Gayle Lynds

New York Times bestseller Gayle Lynds is the award-winning author of nine spy novels and has been called the Queen of International Espionage.

Her keynote will discuss:

“Nero Wolfe, the Spy”

The Program

Welcome, Introductions,
Toasts, Quizzes, Song
Parodies, Keynote

Werowance,
Ira Matetsky

Hostess,
Jane K. Cleland

Special Guests,
Members of Rex Stout's family

Keynote Speaker,
Gayle Lynds

Join us at the magnificent Payne Mansion as celebrated chef Michael Goldstein cooks the French menu from Rex Stout's Too Many Cooks.

The Payne Mansion is easy to get to from the Bouchercon hotel... cab up and walk down! We'll be providing you with an easy, fun (and free) walking tour map!

To register, please send the names of those attending and a check for $195 per person (Wolfe Pack members, spouse or partner, and immediate family, $175 each), made out to the Wolfe Pack to: Jane K. Cleland ■ P.O. Box 3233 ■ NY, NY 10163-3233. Not a member of the Wolfe Pack? Join today! It's easy: Add $35 to your check; get a 2-year membership in the Wolfe Pack and receive the discounted price to the banquet. www.nerowolfe.org